TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ENROLMENT

Changes

CELT reserves the right to change its timetables, classes and their location where necessary.
The fees quoted are valid from 1 January 2015. The Centre reserves the right to change these fees without notice.

Attendance and Progress

CELT requires that all students attend at least 80% of all classes. In accordance with Australian student visa regulations CELT must keep attendance records and academic files, and must report students with unsatisfactory attendance or progress to the Australian immigration authorities who may cancel their visas.

- Students must complete all classwork, assignments, activities and assessments in order to maintain satisfactory progress.

Prerequisites

- Some courses require a prerequisite level of English language for entry.
 - All students will be tested upon commencement of the course and placed in a class at the appropriate English language level.
 - Any placement test conducted prior to commencing at the UWA Centre for English Language Teaching is indicative only and the results of your placement test upon commencement will take precedence.

Refund Policy

- An enrolment includes all courses of study and the orientation day.
 - The enrolment, airport transfer and accommodation placement fees are not refundable.
 - An administration fee of $500 will be charged for all cancellations, other than those resulting from a visa refusal.
 - An administration fee of $200 will be charged for skills workshop cancellations.
 - If your visa application is refused, all your tuition fees will be refunded. You should notify CELT in writing within 7 days of your visa being refused by the Australian immigration authorities. Please enclose a copy of the letter of refusal.
 - If you cancel your enrolment in writing 28 or more days before the course commences, all your tuition fees will be refunded.
 - If you cancel your enrolment in writing between 27 and 14 days before the course commences, 90% of your tuition fee will be refunded.
 - If you cancel your enrolment in writing less than 14 days before the course commences, 70% of your tuition fees will be refunded.
 - No refund will be given once your enrolment has commenced, however in extenuating circumstances up to 50% of your remaining tuition fees for any un-commenced terms may be refunded. The management of CELT reserves the right to assess the seriousness of each case. Applications for refunds must be made in writing at least 5 weeks in advance to the Centre Manager and should include supporting documents.
 - No refund will be given if your studies are discontinued as a result of unsatisfactory conduct, including non-attendance.
 - In the unlikely event that the course for which you have enrolled is cancelled, your fees will be refunded within two weeks of being advised of cancellation.
 - Normal processing time for refunds will be 2-4 weeks and bank charges, agent's commission, enrolment, airport transfer, accommodation placement and the cancellation fee will be deducted.

Accommodation Fees and Refund Policy

- Four (4) weeks homestay fee and the placement fee are payable in advance.
 - After this all homestay fees are paid directly to the host family in advance on the same day every second week.
 - Two (2) weeks notice or two (2) weeks payment is required before moving out of the home.
 - A 50% placement fee is payable if a change of homestay is required because incorrect dates have been given on the homestay application form.
 - If homestay is cancelled after a place has been confirmed, 50% of the placement fee will be forfeited.
 - If cancellation occurs two (2) weeks' or less before arrival, the full placement fee and one week's homestay fee will be forfeited.
 - Fees paid in advance for residential college bookings are only refundable if a replacement occupant has confirmed and paid.
 - Total fees for residential colleges must be paid in advance.
 - A late placement fee of $260 will be incurred for homestay applications submitted with less than 2 weeks notice of arrival.

Transfer Policy

- If you meet the University's English language requirement before the end of your studies at CELT, you may request a transfer of fees towards your degree level studies. Only fees for a course of studies not yet commenced are transferable. You must submit your request for a transfer in writing to the Centre Manager at least one week before the start of the course(s) you wish to cancel. Please be aware that there may be visa implications.
 - Tuition fees will not be transferred to another ELICOS institution.
 - If you transfer to another non-ELICOS Institution you must have written approval from both institutions, if you have a student visa.
 - Applications for transfer to another institution must be made in writing and must be accompanied by a letter from the other institution giving full details of the course into which you have been accepted.
 - All applications for transfer are subject to satisfactory attendance.
 - If your applications for transfer to another non-ELICOS institution and for the transfer of your fees are approved, fees will be transferred after the deduction of a $500 transfer fee and other fees where applicable.
 - You must give CELT notice of one term if you wish to transfer to another institution.
 - Please note – by law, CELT is not obliged to agree to a transfer of money. Please see refund policy above.

Deferments

- Students may only defer complete terms within their course, if permitted by the conditions of their visa. Applications for deferment must be submitted in writing to the Centre Manager.
 - Students returning to complete deferred terms must do so within 12 months of the deferment.

Payment Default

If a student defaults on payment of tuition or other related fees by the specified due date, CELT has the right to cancel the student's enrolment and must report the student default to the appropriate authority within five (5) business days. If a student default on payment occurs, the student may be denied access to teaching and learning and other services until the required fee is fully paid. This may lead to the cancellation of the student's electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (eCoE).

Administration

- Personal information may be shared with the Australian Government, designated authorities, and the Secretary and Director of the Tuition Protection Service (TPS) as appropriate. This information may include personal and contact details, course enrolment details and changes, and circumstances of any suspected breach by the student of a student visa condition.
 - You must notify CELT of your Australian address within seven days of arriving in Australia, and within seven days of any change of address.

Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)

- OSHC is mandatory for all student visa holders and must be for the whole period of the student visa. The fee is calculated by adding four (4) weeks to the period of enrolment.
 - If another insurance provider is selected, CELT is required to see evidence of purchase.

ESOS Act: Information for students
