HOMESTAY TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- The Application fee is non-refundable.
- The late booking fee applies to all bookings received less than 2 weeks prior to arrival.
- Penalty for cancellation within 2 weeks of arrival = Placement fee + 2 weeks homestay fee.
- Cancellation within 48 hours of arrival – full fees apply.
- Holding fee if student goes on holidays – 50%. Minimum 2 weeks notice is required.
- Homestay invoices are payable in advance. You will be invoiced for your first 4 weeks on homestay, and then in blocks up to and including 10 weeks.
- Proximity to James Cook University campus – accommodation will be located near a bus stop. Students may have to change buses due to the regional location of the University.
- Students wishing to extend their homestay placement must provide at least 2 weeks notice, and advise the UIL Student Services Officer in writing. Direct negotiation with the homestay family will result in immediate removal from the home with no refund.
- Each student will be provided with a Homestay Orientation which explains the terms and conditions of their stay in homestay. Should a student breach these conditions, they may be removed from the homestay at their own cost.
- Illegal or unlawful behavior of the student during any period of homestay may result in cancellation of Visa to remain in Australia. All associated costs must be paid by the student or parents.
